Hope this email finds my CSA colleagues doing well as we near the end of June! Time is flying and I know we all have a lot of work to do before our fall term begins. Wishing us all much success.

Now for an easy question for the group...can you please share with me who you contract with to do your professional photography services for Commencement? It is time for us to renew a contract and I would like to see who is in this space that you use.

Thanks for any information!

Sheri
